Communications Arts Advisory Committee Agenda-February 17, 2015 Industry Certification

Welcome &	Amy Perry, Patrick Schwerin
Introductions	Advisory Committee Members
Purpose	The purpose of our advisory committee is to inform you of our program and to generate active participation in our career pathway through helping our students learn more about employability skills, career options, and our local community.
Career Pathway	 Web & Digital Media (formerly Interactive Media) Introduction to Business & Technology Introduction to Digital Technology Digital Design Web Design Introduction to Graphics & Design (for 10th Grade) Updates to Communication Arts Department Program of Study
FBLA	 Future Business Leaders of America Competitive Events, Updates on who advanced to SLC Conferences, National Leadership Conference, Chicago this summer Chaperones needed for the upcoming conference Sponsorship funds would be greatly appreciated.
Work Based Learning	Internship Program Explorer Post Experience Job Shadow Days Guest Speakers SCCPSS Job Fair coming March 26
Round Table Discussion	 Approval of Mission Statement & Philosophy Final visit on March 25 at 12ish in Media Center. Members from the final visiting team will be asking you questions about your involvement with our department! What do we need from you? Input & Suggestions on the following Possible internship positions experiences, job shadow experiences for our students, and field trips Resume, Interview, Electronic Portfolio advice Future Business Leaders of America Competitive Event Preparation Sessions FBLA Monetary Sponsors for students competing at the State and National level Suggestions and ideas for classroom presentations and activities relating to employability skills What do you need from us and our students? We want to help you as well, please let us know what our department, students, and FBLA members can do to help you.